Description

The whole experience at " Villa Marguerita " will be relaxing from the moment you arrive until the moment you leave. Island hopping, swimming, boating, fishing, walks to the several nearby waterfalls, bush walks, Bar-B-Ques on uninhabited islands. Further details indoors The 3 bedroom villa is a Native style timber construction with fantastic water and island views. It has 2 clean bathrooms and the beds are comfortable and new. You can arrange your own meals or Marilyn our cook will gladly prepare tasty meals for you. We have a large kitchen equipped with a pizza oven, oven, micro wave oven gas stove, coffee machine and blender. The facilities are clean and comfortable. Some of our guests have spent their time reading, walking the beach, bar hopping, using our small boats to explore the nearby reefs and islands, walking through the village, buying produce such as seafood and vegetables from the local vendors, walking to the waterfalls, riding the motorbike or bicycles, swimming, snorkelling, and the list goes on. The rooms are quite airy and usually cool as we are beside the sea. Bring you favourite CDs or MP3 players to play through our sound system. There's nothing like cold drinks, good music and beautiful weather to enhance your holiday. We have Information and Frequently Asked Questions sheets available for email, once you are interested in making a booking. Please ask for this and we'll send it shortly after the request is received. Further details outdoors You can have access to our 2 bicycles, pool table, table tennis table and small paddle boat as part of the house rental. Additional charges apply for use of the motorised boats. Our Yamaha 125 motor bike is also available for rent and a deposit may be requested to cover any breakages. We have to employ additional staff for manning the larger boats for safety. Of course no one wants to carry the ice boxes and crates of beer etc. when they are on holidays, so its better to employ a helper. Our caretakers are happy to assist you to purchase food items from the nearby produce stores and there are a few seafood markets close by where you can buy the catch of the day. Local vendors visit the home daily with fresh fruit, vegetables and seafood. Our caretakers are happy to bargain to get the best prices. Please show the workers suitable considerations for their assistance. You can live like a King in Philippines on a small budget, so enjoy the experience, and let someone else do the work, beside you'll meet some very nice appreciative local people, and learn a little about their culture.

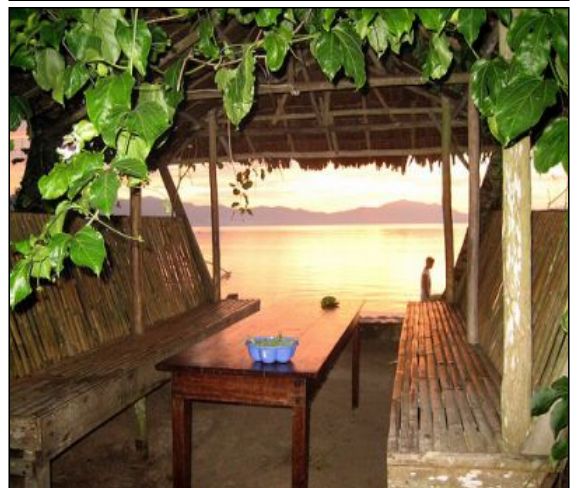

Rental Conditions

The weekly tariff covers the rental of the home, basic American or Filipino Breakfasts for up to 4 persons, an Island Hopping adventure for up to 4 persons including a Beach Barbecue lunch, (Not applicable for short term stays under 7 days). Additional charges apply for Breakfasts and Island Hopping for extra guests over 4 persons.
