Description

Enjoy this charming 150 year old cottage "Lilla Skahus" in the middle of nature. It is in the highlands of Småland, has a wonderfully secluded. Your neighbors are moose, deer, fox, badger and raccoon. These animals can very often be seen from the house. Enjoy long walks in the unspoiled nature and in the evening by the fire a book where you will find peace and relaxation. Boil it again on the old Gußherd, bake with the kids waffles, certainly a very special experience.

The house with its own special ambiance is equipped with satellite TV, full kitchen, fridge-freezer and washing machine. It is cut generously and the spatial distribution is as follows: in the ground floor are a small hall, a bedroom with a fireplace and the living room with a fireplace, also a spacious and fully equipped kitchen (technical description, see above) with a connected, yet separate dining area and the fully equipped bathroom with shower and toilet. Located in a small bedroom upstairs and a large combined living from the balcony is also accessible.

The house is heated electrically, and with the existing stoves and fireplaces. With the holiday you book a boat that is inviting for fishing trips and excursions on the lake Flen. It is an excellent fishing spot for pike and perch. The places where Astrid Lindre play stories (Büllerbü, Katthult, Mariannelund) are very close. This holiday is an experience. Pure nature for individualists!
