This is a lovely villa, owned by a British Couple. There are many extras to make your holiday memorable. It is set in a tranquil spot overlooking the Mangroves which are government protected. On one side of the house there is a 'park' where no one can build and on the other side there is an identical house.

There are 2 double rooms upstairs with ensuite bathrooms with ceiling fans and air conditioning. In between the 2 rooms is a large area with 2 double futons suitable for children. It is also air-conditioned and has a large cable TV.

Downstairs there is another bedroom and bathroom, a very large living room with plenty of comfortable seating and a well equipped kitchen, containing microwave and dishwasher. The dining table is kept in the undercroft but there is another table with chairs and umbrella outside by the pool. There is a gas BBQ.

Outside by the pool are sun loungers and upstairs outside the bedrooms there is a balcony which has more chairs as this is an excellent place for spotting some of the 35 different species of birds and other wild life in their natural habitat.
